LVI2023 Law via the Internet 2 6-8 November 2023

Sessions	Sessions
University of Vienna	18oct23

Venue: OCG Austrian Computing Society, Wollzeile 1, 1010 Wien
(Chairs: tbc)

Monday, November 6, 2023 - ReMep2023

	Programm & Survival
09:15-10:00	ReMeP Topic I: Technological Best Practice of LIIs (Chair:)
09:30-10:00	Get2gether ReMeP2023 (coffee, tea, air etc.)
10:00-10:30	Opening of ReMeP2023 - Solicitor Dr. Stefan Eder, ReMeP Chair
10:30-12:00	ReMeP Topic I: Technological Best Practice of LIIs (Chair:)

Srijoni Sen: Multilingual Access to Legal Information in India: Policy and Technology Dimensions	Peter Gurský, Zoltán Szoplák, Dávid Varga, Šimon Horvát, Stanislav Krajči and Ľubomír Antoni: Towards a Unified Legal Framework: SkLII - Bridging Disjointed Slovak Legal Systems through Automated Text Analysis and Visualization	Lydia-Mutindi Jacobs and Charles Uugwanga: Namibia's Path to Disseminating Public Legal Information

12:00-13:00	Lunch break
13:00-15:30	ReMeP Topic II: Law as code - Text to logical code (Chair: Stefan Eder)

Andrew Mowbray, Philip Chung and Graham Greenleaf: Automating 'Rules as Code': Applications scope, from legislation to standards	Tomer Libal Automated creation of legal code based on text corpora	Matthew Waddington: Computer-Readable Legislative Project	Björn Lellmann, Christian Schieb: Law as Code Project

15:30-16:00	Pause/break (coffee, tea, air etc.)
16:00-17:30	FALM Meeting
18:00-20:00	Get2gether, followed by individually organised dinners

Tuesday, November 7, 2023

09:00-09:15	Opening of LVI2023 - Dean Prof. Dr. Zöchling-Jud, Faculty of Law, University of Vienna, Ronald Bieber, OCG (tbc) Programm & Survival - LVI2023 Chairs
09:15-10:00	Invited Talk I: Graham Greenleaf, Policies to ensure that AI benefits free access to law (Chair: Stefan Eder)
10:00-10:30	Pause/break (coffee, tea, air etc.)

10:30-12:00	John Joergensen, AI and Contemporary Anthropological Philosophy	Sara S. Frug, LII in Real Life: Emerging Technologies, Legal Data, and the Ever-Moving Target;	Ivan Mokanov, What are we building next? CanLII's positioning in the new AI world – no-cost, trustworthy, technologically audacious
12:00-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:30	Panel: A comparison of the different ways to Free Legal Information  Panelists: Graham Greenleaf, AustLII, Helmut Weichsel, Federal Ministry of Finance, Pascal Berteloot, formerly Office for Publications, Luxemburg, Anton Geist, LexisNexis Austria, N.N., Manz Publishers, Vienna (tbc) (Chair: Stefan Eder)
15:30-16:00	Pause/break (coffee, tea, air etc.)
16:00-17:30	Ginevra Peruginelli, Fostering Open Science: The Advocacy for Secondary Publishing Rights in European Scientific Publishing	Craig Newton, Legal Information, Copyright Law, and Open Access: The American Perspective	Michael Cheung, Navigating the Legal Matrix with the Legal Question Bank and the CLIC
19:00-22:00	"Heuriger" - Dinner at a local winery

Wednesday, November 8, 2023

09:00-10:00	Invited Talk II: Andi Rauber, Gabor Rescki, Generative AI & IR: What can AI do for Advanced Legal Research? (tbc) (Chair: Felix Schmautzer)
10:00-10:30	Pause/break (coffee, tea, air etc.)
10:30-12:30	Marco Billi, Alessandro Parenti and Marco Sanchi, Explainable rule-based reasoning through large language models: a hybrid approach for accessible legal information communication	Frédéric Pelletier, CatLII Unleashed: AI Case Analysis for CanLII Decisions	Marc-André Morissette, Exploiting Citation Networks in Large Corpora to Improve Relevance on Broad Queries	Leyang Huang, Daniel Hicks, Xiang Chen, Ben Kao and Tien-Hsuan Wu, On the Use of Large Language Model and Legal Knowledge Base in Community Legal Education
12:30-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:30	Marc van Opijnen, Recent case law regarding the GDPR, relevant for the publication of court decisions and the communication of cases	Carina Pillay, Balancing the right to data protection and the right of access to legal information in South Africa	Enrico Francesconi, Modeling Bibliographic Resources for Promoting Free Access to European Parliament Public Documents
15:30-16:00	Closing session			